Benjamin Marchandise is a Partner at Schoups.

Benjamin obtained his law degree at the Université Catholique de Louvain (2003) and is a member of the Brussels Bar (since 2004). In 2004 Benjamin obtained an additional degree in "Criminological Sciences" (Leuven).

He joined the firm in September 2018, after having worked as a lawyer at VWEW Lawyers (Head of Litigation) for seven years. He previously worked in the litigation department of the Brussels office of NautaDutilh.

An experienced litigator, Benjamin focuses primarily on domestic and international dispute resolution and arbitration. His broad expertise includes insolvency and commercial law dispute resolution.

Benjamin has extensive experience in all aspects of corporate law. He regularly assists companies in reorganizations, acquisitions and other transactions and provides advice on all kinds of corporate law issues.
