But better protected against the rogue real estate agent? - RD confirms and clarifies known conditions for mandatory professional liability insurance for real estate agents

The Law of February 11, 2013^[1] requires real estate agents to insure themselves for their professional liability. Defining the rules and conditions that this compulsory insurance must meet was left to the King by the legislature. The Royal Decree of September 29, 2022 "concerning the compulsory insurance provided for by the Law of February 11, 2013 organizing the profession of real estate broker" came into force on November 24.
