Liesbeth Truyens appointed as Partner

Schoups is extremely pleased to announce the appointment of Liesbeth Truyens as Partner effective July 1, 2022.

Liesbeth focuses primarily on commercial and financial litigation. In addition, she specializes in corporate criminal law and compliance-related matters such as trade and financial embargoes and anti-money laundering regulation.

In 2020, Liesbeth joined the Schoups office. Previously, she worked at two international law firms in Brussels and spent four years as a corporate lawyer for an international banking and insurance group.

Over the past years, Liesbeth has proven her value to the firm through her dedication and quality work. The firm wishes her every success with this important step in her career.
