Nice rankings for Schoups in the Legal 500 and in the Leaders League guides

We are very proud to announce that Schoups has once again received nice rankings in various legal guides.

In The Legal 500 we were ranked for 'Real estate and construction' in Tier 2, for 'Dispute resolution' in Tier 3 and for 'Commercial, Corporate and M&A' and 'Environment' we were ranked in Tier 4. The editors of the guide mention the commitment of our team: 'All lawyers I have been working with at Schoups are very dedicated, clever and hard working people.'

In the Leaders League Guide, our team's efforts have led to rankings for 'Real estate', 'Commercial litigation', 'International arbitration' and 'Industrial risks and liability litigation'. For the category 'Real estate' we received the rating 'excellent', for the other three categories we were rated as 'highly recommended'.

These recognitions are in line with the previous rankings in Chambers & Partners Europe and Global Guide 2022 (see here).

We thank our clients for their continued trust in and appreciation of our work, and the team for their passion and dedication in their profession. These recognitions are the result of our teamwork.
