

Schoups authored the Belgian chapter of the Construction Law 2022 Global Practice Guide

Schoups is proud to have authored the Belgian chapter of the renowned Construction Law 2022 Global Practice Guide from Chambers and Partners. The contribution from Marco Schoups, Geert De Buyzer, Sébastien Leroy and Jens Rediers underscores the leading position of Schoups in the Belgian Construction Law market.

The guide features 25 jurisdictions and provides the latest legal information on the impact of COVID-19 and the war in Ukraine on the construction sector. It also covers several other hot topics such as financing of projects, permits, contract prices, liabilities and risks, insurance and securities, contract administration and claims, remedies and damages, and dispute resolution.

The guide, with Peter Habraken from HabrakenRutten acting as Contributing Editor, is now available to view online. You can find our thoughts on recent trends and developments in the market, as well as our legal and practical insights here.

Do not hesitate to reach out to us if you have any questions or comments, or if you would like to receive a pdf version of our contribution.
